

HILLCREST CEMETERY

The Barbers Corner Burying Ground, renamed Hillcrest Cemetery in 1929, was incorporated and recorded on July 10, 1854.

However, the 1835 grave marker of Harriet Martin would indicate the Cemetery to be considerably older than recorded.

Like the beginning of most rural cemeteries, local farmers needed an area set aside for burials. Pioneer names like Warren, Glover, and Sprague can be found in the cemetery. Once established, Barbers Corner was maintained by a board of Trustees. Many of these trustees are buried in the very place they worked hard to maintain and improve. Included in this group are: M.B. Ayers, A.S. Alderman, John Schanbacher, Fred Blasing, Mrs. Charles Erickson, Robert Clow and Arnold Wolfe.

The cement wall fronting the cemetery was erected in 1912. It was donated by Elizabeth Brunson, in memory of her husband. The Village restored the wall in 1994.

Today, Hillcrest is the only active cemetery in Bolingbrook, with plans for future expansion.
